overpopulation of the community street dogs.

We are not Animal Control. We do not have services or resources to stroll through the streets of San Felipe in search of stray dogs and bring them to the shelter. We rely on our community to identify those animals in destress or need. We have a managed admission system that controls the number of animals that can be brought into the shelter. We encourage our local community to call the shelter first before bringing an animal to the shelter. Are resources are limited but we will do our best when ever possible to provide love and care to those in need.

SFDR is a nonprofit organization that totally relies on donations. We do not receive any funding from state or federal tax dollars.

The San Felipe Dog Rescue is essential to addressing the street dog issue in San Felipe. We are run by dedicated employees, volunteers, and rely on public donations. Much like many other animal rescues, we are always beyond capacity and short on funds.

We are not Animal Control. We do not have services or resources to stroll through the streets of San Felipe in search of stray dogs and bring them to the shelter. We rely on our community to identify those animals in destress or need. We have a managed admission system that controls the number of animals that can be brought into the shelter. We encourage our local community to call the shelter first before bringing an animal to the shelter. Are resources are limited but we will do our best when ever possible to provide love and care to those in need.

SFDR is a nonprofit organization that totally relies on donations. We do not receive any funding from state or federal tax dollars.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

The San Felipe Dog Rescue is essential to addressing the street dog issue in San Felipe. We are run by dedicated employees, volunteers, and rely on public donations. Much like many other animal rescues, we are always beyond capacity and short on funds.
